Media Release - SA Health

Friday, 9 December 2016

Country Health SA and the Coorong Health Advisory Council have moved to reassure the local residents that Tailem Bend District Hospital will continue to provide vital services to the community.

Regional Director of the Riverland Mallee Coorong Region, Wayne Champion, said that the locums will continue to staff the Tailem Bend Medical Centre while an expression of interest process for service delivery is underway. "The aim of the expression of interest process is to ensure ongoing access to GP services locally for the Tailem Bend community," Mr Champion said.

The Presiding Member of the Coorong Health Advisory Council, Annie Jager, added that it continues to work with all parties to ensure delivery of the best health care for the growing local community. "The Tailem Bend District Hospital relies on having medical officers in the Clinic to support it," Ms Jager said. "It is an exciting time for the Tailem Bend community and it is important that we retain all of our medical facilities."

Mr Champion and Ms Jager were both confident that the expression of interest process, which relates only to the Tailem Bend Medical Centre and not to the Hospital, would deliver further stability and continuity of care for the community.

"The Coorong HAC is confident that this process will offer improved services for the Tailem Bend Community," Ms Jager said.

"We will find a suitable tenderer for the Medical Centre, ensuring appropriate support for inpatients and aged care residents at Tailem Bend District Hospital," Mr Champion added. "In the past, GPs who have practiced from the Tailem Bend Medical Centre have provided emergency and inpatient services at Tailem Bend District Hospital." "These arrangements will continue in the future with the successful tenderer."

Mr Champion said the closing date for expressions of interest has been extended to Monday 12 December 2016.

The Changing Face of Tailem Bend #61

I have mentioned previously about the number of business houses operating in Tailem in what I will call the boom days around the 1950's and 60's. I have a flyer that was circulated for the Christmas Pageant in 1967 and it shows that sponsors numbered 60. I can clearly remember them all, as will a lot of other present day residents. There is no mention of floats being involved but Marching Girls were popular then and I am sure they would have put on a spectacular show. Unfortunately it did not reproduce well enough to be printed in this edition, but if you would like to see it, please contact me.

We didn't have Willow St. in those days but there is no doubt the Town Hall would have been packed and the music and community singing led by the "Melody Wreckers" and "Pill's Orchestra" would have been in full cry.

I've been talking about the pioneers of our Town, the residents who helped develop and foster their interests for the benefit of our community. One such person was Les Baker Snr, the name might ring a bell, as I did a story in Topics on his son champion cyclist Les Jnr.

Les was best known around Tailem as a railway train examiner but his story goes back to Naracoorte where he was born and raised. His first job was apprentice carriage maker and blacksmith. In the 1920's he had his own Blacksmith business and ran it until the depression took its toll and he was forced to close down. Still at Naracoorte he was employed in the SA Railways as a fettler. From there he was transferred to Wirrega where he was in charge of the pumps that filled tanks with water needed for the steam engines plying the south east and main Victorian lines.

In the early 1940,s he was transferred to Tailem Bend and commenced working at the coal gantry as well as learning charge man duties in the loco department. He also operated the railway recovery crane which was taken out to all derailments.

Always out to better himself he studied in Adelaide to become a train examiner, which he excelled at and could be seen on different shifts riding his old racing bike the length of the marshalling yards at Tailem performing his duties.

In his leisure time his great passion was bike racing and he soon got work mates involved and between them they started the Tailem Bend Cycling Club which lasted for many years. A champion rider himself he was a great mentor to many other riders as well as conducting a school boy's competition. He was always grateful for the support he received from local surrounding district identities in promoting the Tailem Club, such as Claude Minge Snr. who was a great rider himself.

Eventually, Les with the assistance of many people and businesses, constructed a bitumen race track around the football oval - in later years it became a danger to riders and football players alike. Due to a decline in members also, the track was removed and the club folded with any funds held, being donated to the Tailem Bend Hospital.

After his retirement, he and with his wife Irene, became involved with many local organisations as volunteers.

I have a list of happenings around Tailem Bend titled Dateline, occasionally I update them so here are a few more:

There is little doubt school education has gone through massive changes over the past few years and I often wonder if the practice of the three R's still exist. I heard recently that students are not taught how to spell and write etc, instead their education is based on learning all about computers that will do the work for them.

That's a sign of the times and cannot be ignored. It wouldn't help much in personal communication though!!

With all this in mind I would like to quote from a book compiled by the students of the Tailem Bend Primary School in 1985. The idea of the book was to generate some interest among the students towards their local history. Many guest speakers spoke to the children and they did the rest. From one of those speakers, Mrs Patten, the students learnt what school was like in the early 1900's and compiled this bit of history about the early days.

The school consisted of one classroom where the Library is today and there was a headmaster and one teacher. The fence went around the school and went from the school house and enclosed the school building and no other areas as we have today.

The ground was all stones and not very much space to play, there were paddocks around the school and people had cows in the paddocks. In those days most people had cows to milk because you couldn't buy milk from shops.

Boys wore shorts, shirts and boots; girls wore black lace up shoes and dresses.

A bell went to start the day, when the second bell sounded, everyone lined up from the tallest to the shortest. In line, students were inspected for shiny shoes, clean nails and brushed hair. If something wasn't clean, the child got the cane across the knuckles.

Everyone saluted the flag and recited; "I salute the Union Jack – I promise to cheerfully keep the laws – Be loyal to King George the Fifth". "God save the Queen" was then sung.

In the yard boys played marbles, girls played knuckles and hide and seek, the children didn't seem to play football, netball or tennis until year seven. Children only had one excursion a year when they went to Murray Bridge for a combined sports day.

When children first started school they used slate and chalk, until they progressed to pen and ink and had to learn cursive straight away. Around the class room hung charts of brown paper with tables, songs and words on them, children had to recite tables every morning and they also had poems to recite.

If children were late for school they had to stand in the late line at recess time. If they banged their seats they had to write lines or times tables. There was a school concert in the Institute every year.

Please refer to page 34 for a fantastic photograph of those 'old school days'.

Well, the children absorbed a lot from Mrs Patten's talk to present it in story form and there is still a lot more to come.

Many thanks to Jeanette Kozikowski for making this available, also the Baker family.

More surprises next month, see you then.

There are Rotary projects in your local community.

Wider ranging projects include our international project Helping Hands co-ordinated by Sally Charlton.

Meetings are casual with minimal business, focusing on fellowship.

Christmas 2016

We finished the year with a wonderful Christmas Dinner at Bill Ballard's riverside home, with delicious food provided by Kathy Stolarski and her family team.

We had another successful BBQ stall at the Tailem Bend Christmas Parade. It is a night to be proud of our town, with families travelling quite a distance to enjoy Tailem Bend's unique Christmas celebration.

Paul Harris Fellows

Sally Charlton and Sarah Fensak became Paul Harris Fellows at our first 2017 gathering. Paul Harris was the Founder of Rotary in 1905 and becoming a Fellow is a way that a Rotary Club recognises someone who has made a substantial commitment in their life and vocation to helping others.

Sally and Sarah have served the Tailem Bend Rotary Club in so many ways –too many to list here.

Congratulations Sally and Sarah, and thanks for your dedication.

Tailem Bend Lions Club

Our Dinner meeting in November, saw the Tailem Bend Lions play host to the District Governor Bryan Hearn and his wife Kay.

Bryan gave an entertaining speech about his life as a Lion Member as well as his role as Governor. During the night, Lion Doug Holmes was presented with his 30-year monarch pin. The Tailem Bend Lions Club would like to congratulate Doug on reaching this milestone.

Also during the year, Bryan, set us a task - to collect as many five cent pieces as we could and bring them along to the November Dinner Meeting, where he would collect them. They were then donated to the Lions Overseas Measles Vaccination Programme. From this night, we managed to raise $15.15 – that's a lot of five cent pieces!

We held our annual Lions Christmas Cake Run on December 3rd with assistance from Morphett Vale Noarlunga Club. We were divided into three groups, to ensure that the whole of Tailem Bend was covered, with Santa getting into the spirit of Christmas and lending a hand too. Thanks to everyone who purchased a cake or pudding, or gave a donation on the day, it was very much appreciated.

Our Christmas Dinner was held in December at the Riverside Hotel, where 35 guests attended, plus some Lions Members, as well. Our yummy dinner began with Main Course of Roast Turkey or Salmon, followed by Dessert of Mini Pavlova or Mini Rum Christmas Pudding. Thank you to Riverside Hotel for their outstanding catering on the night. During the night we were entertained by Peter Squires, who talked about the Tourism on Norfolk Island, followed by Glenn Power who spoke about the progress of Tailem Topics and what he and his wife Barbie did, before they came to Tailem Bend.

December 18th saw us selling raffle tickets as well as cakes & puddings at the Tailem Bend Christmas Parade. The Raffle was drawn during the night and the winners are listed below;

Bowling Club Report

Bowls is now well under way for 2017.

At the time of writing Div 1 are safely in third position. Div2 Blue is just holding onto 4th position and Div2 Gold has the task in front of them, being 19 points adrift in 6th position. Div 3 has the job ahead to make the finals, as at the moment they are 46 points behind 4th position.

Mid-week Eagles are right in the race, being just 6 points off 4th position in 7th. If we are to finish the season successfully, it is bums down and heads up.

The club would like to pass on our belated birthday wishes to our stalwart life member Des Zander who had his 80th birthday late last year.

LIVE BLOOD ANALYSIS - Carmen BubnerND

Live Blood Analysis (LBA) is a screening technique used to study blood cells and other elements in the blood. You may be thinking why can it be helpful to look at an individual's blood? A simple answer to that is our blood nourishes, protects and detoxifies every cell in our entire body. For these reasons blood is a perfect medium for analysing a person's current health status.

In an LBA assessment a drop of blood is examined under a specialised microscope, results can also be viewed by the client on a screen. This gives you the unique and fascinating opportunity to view your own blood cells and see changes as you improve your health. LBA provides information on the shape, size, colour and mobility of red blood cells, white blood cells and platelets. Other elements that can also be identified include vitamin and mineral deficiency, microbes, yeast, crystals, fatty deposits and oxidative stress. Indicators of viral exposure may also be seen by viewing a person's white blood cells. All observations noticed assist the practitioner in determining the best dietary and lifestyle programme for the individual to improve their health.

It is important to note that LBA does not involve the diagnosis of a specific disease but can give clear and concise indicators of what is happening in the body. Being able to detect functional imbalances early can assist in the prevention of many health conditions.

Live Blood Analysis is a marvellous technology that I use as part of my naturopathic consultation.

Health and Fitness

By Neil Mountstephen

With 2017 well underway, now more than ever people will be seeking a Personal Trainer or Nutritionist in order to meet their health and fitness goals.

It is vitally important to do your due diligence and to make sure that the person you are going to for advice and help has the appropriate qualifications and experience.

The wrong advice can lead to injury or illness.

To sum it up, always go to someone with a deep understanding of their profession, someone who walks the walk. Someone who has stood the test of time and is working within their scope of practice.

Don't be scared to ask the person what qualifications they have and how long they have been in their profession.

Another New Business for Tailem Bend

TAILEM Bend's retail precinct continues to grow with the opening of another retail outlet - with more to follow.

As parts of regional South Australia struggles to make ends meet, Tailem Bend continues to grow alongside large scale developments in the region.

Quietly wholesaling from their home since July 2014, Just Vintage Signs proprietors, Greg Hodgkiss and Tara Hutchesson of Tailem Bend, swung open their retail doors on the morning of Saturday, August 21, last year, in anticipation of big things to come.

Specialising in interior vintage signs, the couple have been wholesaling signs to clubs and groups for years and with the opening of their retail shop at 85A Railway Terrace, Tailem Bend, the duo are ecstatic about the possibilities of development on their doorstep.

"We've been creating and supplying tailor made signage for years, but with the development of The Bend Motorsport Park, we had to jump on board," said Greg. "We started our business in 2014, so Tara and I could work together and spend more time as a family - now it's grown to a full time family business - we're very proud of what we have done."

With so many opportunities knocking on the doors of the region Just Vintage Signs have decided to share their success and have partnered with a number of local football clubs, to help them create their own custom signs for raising much needed club funds.

"We've supplied Honda Australia on a number of occasions over the years and our goal is to gain licensing approvals of all major brands so we can retail these signs through our shop front and supply wholesale, Australia wide.

If you're after timber signs, banners, A-frames, digital printing, a shop front, stickers, metal signs (to mention only a few), or your club is looking for a successful fundraising idea, give Greg or Tara a call on 0432 370 164 or drop into their shop at 85A Railway Terrace, Tailem Bend.

This Month in the Garden

There's not usually much spare space in the February garden, as tomatoes start to ripen, sweet corn and pumpkins and zucchinis are doing their thing, and beans are producing daily garden snacks. It's worth being ruthless and making space if you can for long season vegies that will grow into autumn and winter. Remove those vegies that have gone to seed, like lettuces, kale and Asian greens and any straggly broad beans or peas.

The long season vegies to plant now that will feed you in winter include: Leeks, parsnips, celery, celeriac, brussel sprouts and other brassicas (like broccoli, cabbage, cauliflower). You don't have to panic or rush though, as most of these can be comfortably planted well into March. Brussel sprouts need the longest growing season, so it's a good idea to plant them as seedlings this month. They are hungry plants, so feed them well with good compost and regular doses of liquid fertiliser.

In any gaps or edges of beds where there is a bit of space, keep up succession and replacement plantings, including: Carrots, beetroot, radish, turnip, Asian greens, silver beet and spring onions.

Keep your fruit trees well watered and mulched as they ripen fruit like plums, apples, pears and quinces. Collect and compost any fallen fruit, or let your chickens provide the cleanup service for you in exchange for eggs. This will help break the cycle of many fungal disease and insect problems.

Don't be afraid to snip a few leaves off the zucchini's or sunflowers or pumpkins if they are bullying and shading their neighbours. They'll keep producing new leaves to replace what you remove, and the new growth will be more resistant to mildew.

Keep tying up your tomatoes, if you're that way inclined, and break off any lower leaves that are yellowed and curled up. Once fruit is developing and starting to ripen, try to keep the watering even to prevent blossom end rot. In other words, don't let the garden bed totally dry out then soak it, but rather give water little and often to keep an even moisture level.

Keep an eye out for pests such as Cabbage White Butterflies, who will quickly find your brassica seedlings. Look for little green grubs on the underside of the leaves and squish on sight! Dipel is a biological control agent in powder form, which can be mixed with water and sprayed onto the leaves. It will only kill the caterpillars and not the good insects like bees, hover flies or ladybirds.

Watch your tomatoes too, for fungal and viral diseases. Look for little yellow or brown patches on the leaves or stems. Give any affected plant a good dose of fish emulsion. If the plants don't respond after a week or two, it's best to remove them all together and dispose of in the bin - not the compost. Some diseases can be transmitted through touch, so don't handle healthy plants after disposing of the diseased ones, before washing your hands thoroughly.

Remember to visit your local nursery or garden centre for all your gardening needs, tips and advice.

Happy Gardening!

Vietnam Veteran and South Australian Icon Graham Cornes will feature at the Murray Bridge RSL as guest dinner speaker on Saturday 18 March to kick start the RSL's 2nd Annual ANZAC Sports Carnival.

The Carnival is a 6 week fund raiser, raising money in support of the Murray Bridge High School sending two of it's students on a study tour of the Western Front in 2018.

Prior to successful careers in football, business, media and music, Graham served as a National Serviceman during the height of the Vietnam Campaign with the Australian Army's 7th Royal Australian Regiment. Leading up to and during his training, Graham played Football for the Glenelg Football Club in the SANFL, prior to being deployed to Vietnam. Upon his return and discharge, he continued his SANFL career and ventured out into other fields.

Tickets are $55 and include a 3 Course Meal and Graham speaking about his time as a Sportsman and Serviceman.

For bookings and further information, call the Murray Bridge RSL on 8532 1314 or head to the RSL on a Thursday, or Friday afternoon from 4pm.

THE TALIEMBEND CHRISTMAS PARADE STARS REVIVAL CABARET NIGHT!

The Taillem Bend Christmas Parade Stars Revival Cabaret Fundraiser was held on the Saturday the 5th of November and what a huge success it was. We had a full house. The night kicked off with Arkive and followed by many local talented artists in between brackets. During the night for extra fundraising and entertainment we had raffles, silent auctions, Lucky spot, Spin the bottle and balloon popping. Many local business`s from Taillem Bend and Murray Bridge donated prizes for the balloon popping fundraiser. It was so much so much of a success we actually sold out of the balloons in the first 10 minutes. Because of the generosity of prizes donated and the support of the community for buying tickets and supporting the event we were able to raise $4,000 . This money raised is allocated for the children's entertainment ( Bouncing castles, face painting and the running of the Santa`s Wonderland). There are many contributing costs to keep the Parade up and running and this fundraising from the Cabaret has made a significant difference. The Taillem Bend Christmas Parade Committee would like to give a Big Thank you to all the sponsors, Arkive, the artists and all the people who came in and donated their time to make the Cabaret happen. It would not have happened with out you. Everybody played their part and helped from entertaining , singing, sound & lights to helping setting up and packing up. Due to such a popular demand and because it was a great success we will be making this a yearly fundraiser event. So Thank you to all of you who came on the night , bought a raffle ticket or helped in any way. We look forward to seeing you all again very soon at the Christmas Parade on the 17th of December at 6pm !

Celebrating the Aussie way

Australia day events are happening throughout the Coorong District with breakfasts, fun runs and awards spread over the towns of Tintinara, Meningie and Tailem Bend.

2017 Australia Day Ambassador Paul Rosenzweig will travel to all three towns to speak at each event.

Paul is a retired Army Officer with 32 years' service and a dedicated military historian who has run Anzac Heritage courses to promote an understanding of the Spirit of the Anzac.

Tintinara will host an Aussie breakfast from 8am-9.30am, at the Tintinara Health & Recreation Centre, celebrating the Citizen of the Year award for resident Charlie Allen.

Charlie has been involved in many community organisations including the Tintinara Bowling Club and Football Club. He is a Life Member of the Tintinara Hall with 51 years of service and is a member of the Tintinara Community Men's Shed, Colebatch CFS and Tintinara Lions Club.

Meningie will hold its 25th annual Fun Run and Australia Day Breakfast from 7.30am to 12 noon at the Meningie Cheese Factory, with awards presented at 10.30am.

This year's recipient of the Australia Day Citizen of the Year Award for Meningie is Lesley Fischer who has made a consistent contribution to her community as an advocate and volunteer. Lesley's scope of impact for the community has focussed attention on matters affecting the Coorong and Lower Lakes, benefiting all those who rely on the waterways, and she is a respected authority on these issues.

Marianne Cunneen from Meningie will be presented with a Mayoral Award for her service to the community. Marianne has made a positive impact in her community over many years of volunteering for a number of community events and projects, in particular the Meningie 150 celebration events held over the past year.

The Citizen of the Year presentation will be made at Tailem Bend from 12-1pm at the Coorong Civic Centre Chambers, to recipient Nancy Daykin.

Nancy's love of singing, dancing and acting has provided much entertainment for the Tailem Bend community and she has staged many events for the town. She continues her involvement in the arts by exhibiting her paintings and other work in local galleries. Nancy's willingness to 'have a go' at anything is evidenced by a long list of achievements which have contributed greatly to the vibrancy of the town.

OCTOBER JOKE

FINANCIAL PLANNING EXPLAINED BY AN IRISHMAN IN THE OUTBACK OF AUSTRALIA

Paddy bought a camel from a farmer for $100. The farmer agreed to deliver the camel the next day.

In the morning he drove up and said, "Sorry son, but I have some bad news. The camel has died." Paddy replied, "Well, just give me my money back then."

The farmer asked, "What are you going to do with him?"

Paddy said, "I'm going to raffle him off."

The farmer said, "You can't raffle a dead camel!"

Paddy said, "Sure I can. Watch me. I just won't tell anybody he's dead."

A month later, the farmer met up with Paddy and asked, "What happened with that dead camel?"

Paddy said, "I raffle him off. I sold 500 tickets at $2 each and made a profit of $998"

The farmer said, "Did anyone complain?"

Paddy said, "Just the guy who won, so I gave him back his $2."

Paddy now works for the ANZ Bank!

Time to be WELL, WELL, WELL..

Time to talk.

Time to talk about things that many people just won't talk about. Time to talk about three things that impact people's lives.

(1) Struggling with Literacy. (2) Financial problems. (3) Mental Health issues. Addressing these concerns can make a difference. Addressing these concerns can improve Well-being.

It is not just up to the individual. Many people hide away, embarrassed to admit their difficulties – or simply not knowing where they can get help and support. We need a Community response to these three issues. We need to provide an environment where people feel OK to talk about what is bothering them.

Literacy

Some-one who struggles with reading, writing and/or numeracy is probably not even trying to read this article. They possibly even throw the Tailern Topics in the bin as soon as it is in the letterbox – and they miss out on all the valuable local knowledge and information. Some-one trying to cope without literacy skills is going to experience difficulties in finding employment, communicating with agencies, and using a computer. If you know some-one who needs assistance with literacy, encourage and support them to get help. There's no shame – and there are many reasons why people have missed even the basics. It is never too late to learn.

Finances

This is a biggy! Financial worries are of particular concern for people on low incomes, for those who have over-stretched their resources, or those coping with a sudden reduction of income. What if the washing machine breaks down and you have no money to get it fixed or buy a new one? What if the kids want to go on a school excursion and you haven't budgeted for the additional expense?

What do you do if the bills are piling up?

Financial problems are common.

Many people have hit a hard time sometime in their life. There are strategies to work through this. There are services that may be able to assist. It is important to get help before it becomes a crisis. If you know some-one struggling financially – don't condemn. Be a friend.

Mental Health Issues

Despite public perceptions, only about 4% of the population have mental illnesses like Schizophrenia or Bipolar disorder.

Eating disorders are increasingly common, especially among young people. The biggest mental health issue in our society is Depression and Anxiety disorders, with 1 in 4 people having Depression at some time in their life. Statistics indicate that women will seek support and treatment more often than men. While we hear about incidents of violence, they are actually very rare. People experiencing mental health issues are far more likely to withdraw or self-harm. Males are three times more likely to die by suicide than females. Mental health is every-one's business. Keep in contact. Support the person to maintain interests and activities. Provide safe welcoming social environments. Boost resilience.

Distressed by Mental Health issues?

Contact numbers are:

SA state-wide Emergency phoneline: 13 14 65

Lifeline: 13 11 14

BeyondBlue: 1300 22 4636

Kid's Helpline: 1800 55 1800

Literacy * Finances * Mental Health

These three issues in our neighbourhood need a Community response. Too often we feel helpless or overwhelmed but talking openly can identify paths for positive outcomes. Put aside judgement and put out your hand. Listen – above all listen. If a local or accessible service isn't available, advocate and lobby.

It is time to work together to be WELL WELL WELL!

Community Pet Page

Thursday's Canine Column is proudly sponsored by Bek's Pet Grooming & Accessories.

Hello Everyone,

Ally let me give it a try.....

WAKE UP PEOPLE! Back to work we all go, including my side kick and I. As our personal assistant hasn't resigned yet the "three stooges" are back on board again. (oops Ally, I meant to say "the three amigos").

We know there are many very lucky puppies and kittens who have adopted people to become their family, even though at their young age, they are still coming to terms with how humans can walk on only two legs without falling down (well Ally, we won't talk about 'After Christmas' parties!)

To ensure a good start to our lives new parents will have to get us use to yukky needles (vaccinations). We begin with kittens at ages 8 weeks, 12 weeks, 16 weeks and then annually. Kittens can also get feline aids so needles are available at the same time as vaccinations.

Puppies are due for their needles at 6-8 weeks, 10-12 weeks and then annually. Most vets will send Mum and Dad a reminder note.

At such a young age, there is the risk of worms to the new family member. Roundworms are common, so fortnightly worming until 12, weeks is recommended. Heartworms are prevalent in puppies, so monthly tablets or yearly needles are suggested. Prevention can begin as early as 2 weeks, but worming should continue throughout their lives.

Don't forget those pesky fleez (oops I mean fleas). There are a variety of collars, tablets, powders and washes available and remember, all animals in the household should be treated, although, good luck giving a cat a flea bath!

Now a topic that brings tears to my eyes....desexing.

This can be done from 5-6 months of age in both kittens and puppies - the benefits being protection against pregnancy (no I don't think they mean Thursday), coming on-heat, spraying etc.

This may also be a good time to get a microchip, which is a permanent form of Identification and can not be lost like a collar or tag. Any lost pets will have their microchip scanned and returned to their family.

All puppies need to be registered from 3 months. You can do this at your local Council, this offers another form of identification for a safe return with lost pets. On a side note, South Australian Law also requires kittens/cats to have identification.

Puppies can be bathed from 6 weeks of age - as you have all probably worked out, we like to shake our wet coats all over you when you're not looking. Please do not use human shampoo and soaps on our coats because they do not have the sufficient PH level that our skin requires.

Don't forget fun puppy pre-school, apologies in advance to our feline friends for when the young ones learn to socialise with other puppies and people, and more importantly learn some basic manners.

Murray Bridge Vet Clinic hold such classes. Classes run one night a week for puppies 6-14 weeks onwards. If you are after more information, don't hesitate to contact the clinic at anytime.

Anyway, time to take our personal assistant for a walk, catch ya next month.

Thursday...& Ally!

Communities for Children Holiday Programs

During the December/January Holidays we advertised 13 holiday programs in the Coorong region, unfortunately due to limited bookings 3 programs were cancelled.

We stress the importance of using the C4C services offered (bookings are essential) due to registrations forms and minimum numbers required for programs to proceed. If services are not well attended the funding body consider there isn't a need in the community. The TBCC Board of Management and Staff have worked hard to secure funding for programs for children aged 0-12 years and their families.

Over 300 participants from the Region and beyond attended programs provided.

Please call us today to discuss programs you would like to see happen in the Coorong Region and ask your friends to support the Communities for Children program so we don't lose it.

Wellington Pub 170th Anniversary Celebrations - by Ophelia Neumann

On a gorgeous weekend in November last year, plenty of locals and many more from far afield, flocked to celebrate the 170th birthday of the one and only Wellington Pub!

The weekend was packed with events and entertainment provided by the community and bands. Highlights from the weekend included demonstrations from the CFS (pictured) and a great crowd turned out to support the rock band 'Early Morning'.

The kitchen was busy both days, serving famous Welly platters for lunch and was booked out for the evening meals. The face painting was a hit with the kids, but also a treat for the adults. The atmosphere was idyllic, with great support from attendees, which saw donations for the u.g.l.y fundraiser flowing in. It was a fantastic birthday celebration, in a beautiful river location.

The UGLY Fundraiser is the Leukaemia Foundation Hospitality Industry Fundraising Competition.

Rent Free Welding Gas - by Greg Black

These products have been around for a few years now and the number of different brands and resellers is increasing rapidly, all of this is beneficial to the users of Welding Gases but not so for the traditional suppliers who are charging very high rental fees.

The most common question I am asked is, when is the best time to get out of the rental system? The best answer I offer my customers is "Now!"

Although there are a couple of other choices, the second being, if you have some gas left and you have already paid the rent for some time into the future then use the gas and when the cylinder is empty, return it and cancel your rental account (make sure you get a receipt for the returned cylinder).

The third best time is when the rent becomes due again. Most rental customers will be paying $200+ each year for each cylinder. The value of the gas in any cylinder (even when full) will always be less than the value of another year's rent. Based on these figures, why pay another $200+ for another year's rent. So when the rent is due, just take the part full cylinder back and cancel your rental contract (remember the receipt).

And the last (drastic) option (that has been taken up by some of my customers), after they have seen the advantages of the rent free pricing structure. Immediately go home, disconnect the regulators from all cylinders, take the cylinders outside (into a well ventilated area) and open all the valves. When the cylinders are empty, take them back to their old supplier, and get their receipt. On your way home call in to see me and buy a full compliment of rent free cylinders.

Remember that if you return a cylinder part way through the rental period, you can apply (in writing) for a refund of the balance of the rent.

Now that I have described the ways out of the rental cycle, you are free to buy your rent free cylinders from your favourite supplier, but remember only one supplier has the biggest range of gas types and the biggest range of cylinders. If you are not sure of this, look at the advertisement on page three.

Call to Arms - 'WAVE' for Tailem Bend

'Call to arms' from local businessman, Peter Squires of Old Tailem Town, at a recent Tailem Bend Lions Club meeting, sees business and local residents getting on board and waving to promote community wellbeing and local tourism.

With suicide prevention high on the Community's agenda, Peter feels that this simple initiative may just be the medicine to help more people open up and improve communication.

"One local has already suggested that we could have three large unique, heavy duty, spring loaded signs, shaped like hands painted up with "Prepare to Wave" north, south, east and west of town," Peter said. "We would definitely need something at the Town's entrances and along the Main Street - it seems like a good idea with minimal cost to council."

The idea is being proposed to the Coorong District Council with the hope of making Tailem Bend a talking point for promotion and a better place for residents and travellers alike.

"The initiative would provide regular opportunities to attract media to our town and would also give Tailem Bend identification above other South Australian towns," Peter said. "Waving and saying "Good-day" gives people an excuse to communicate without feeling like an extravert and it brings introverts out of their shell, giving them a feeling of being a part of their community."

Peter and his wife Margaret, experienced community waving whilst holidaying on Norfolk Island and felt it was an extremely effective way of bringing visitors and locals together for a memorable experience.

"We were told on the plane, even before we landed on Norfolk, that we were expected to wave - what a wonderful idea," Peter said. "To make this idea work for us, demands a lot of community involvement - PLUS, it'll be a lot of fun."

"There's no cost and we have nothing to lose. Can you imagine 'A Current Affair' driving down our Main Street seeing how many waves they can get and how welcoming it will make travellers feel - they may even stay the night," Peter said. "Let's get the ball rolling, we have nothing to lose and plenty to gain".

Others have suggested the signs could simply say "Good-day, Please Wave" - what do you think?

If you would like to put forward your ideas please drop us a note at Tailem Topics or drop into the Coorong District Council, leaving a note for Anna, letting her know what you think of the idea.

Like all great ideas it's simple, you just have to wave - preferably with a smile saying "Good-Day" and it will not cost you a cent.

Thought For The Month

Well another Christmas and New Year has come and gone, so for the people I have not seen yet, may I wish you a Happy New Year and a fantastic 2017.

Christmas is a fun and joyous time of the year with family get-togethers, presents and for many, a time away from work to recharge and return to work with a new found enthusiasm. But as we know, life continues on and reality returns. By now there may be people facing the *financial* reality of impulsive decisions they made. Decisions that they do not regret when they remember the smiles on the children's faces, but decisions that now must be paid for.

It is also a time of great excitement and trepidation for our sportsmen and sportswomen, whether it be a local sport or a sport on the world stage. For the summer sports people, an excitement that grows as they go into the finals of their chosen sport. For others, a time to lament on what could have been with "just one more win". For the winter sports people a time of trepidation, as they try to fit into a new club and bond with new team mates. A time of excitement for others as they look ahead and chant "This is our year".

Sport introduces us to new pressures and feelings that can aggravate what we are already feeling through home and work. It is a sad truth that we feel that we need to be strong for the club/team, yet inside we are screaming out for help or someone to talk to. Today I encourage you all to say those words which could make a difference – "PLEASE HELP ME" - In Psalm 91:15 we read "When you call me - I will answer you." Do you feel that this is not for you because, "I don't go to church" or "I don't believe in God".

Maybe so, but God believes in you. If you ask for help, there will be no clap of thunder, lightning or flashes of light, but you may be surprised by who you happen to bump into the next time you go out, or that someone who rings or visits at just the right moment.

There are people out there like Sports Chaplains, Priests, Pastors, Carers etc who do care, who are willing just to listen and who will not bible bash or try to convert you. They are your 'safe' person. The person you can trust to keep a confidence, to help you through, or to get you help.

So, if you are hurting, just ask "please help me, help me to find my 'safe' person".

What have you got to lose? How much have you got to gain?

Matthew Hogan - Sports Chaplain, Tailem Bend Bowling Club

Pangarinda Botanical Gardens

Pangarinda Botanic Garden has not escaped the strong winds of the past few months. Anyone walking around the gardens will have noticed the many broken limbs and shrubs scattered around. Volunteers are nearing the end of the cleaning up, with the piles of dead shrubs getting higher.

Don't let the many fallen Gum trees put you off planting a Eucalypt in your garden, as there are many beautiful small Eucalypts. Flowering at Pangarinda at present is Eucalyptus leptopoda, a small multi-stemmed mallee, the canopy topped with a light film of cream-white flowers. The closely related Eucalyptus synandra - a small weeping tree with cream flowers turning pink with age, in clusters on pendulous stalks. A favourite with many visitors, is Eucalyptus brandiana, with its large dark green leaves and square red flower buds with bright pink flowers.

Other 'attention catchers' are Eucalyptus macrocarpa and rhodantha, both have grey foliage, macrocarpa has the largest flower of the Eucalypts up to 70mm wide. These large pink flowers appear nestled amongst the large grey leaves once the large grey pixie cap falls. Children love these large caps. Rhodantha has up to 50mm wide red flowers.

*Smaller Eucalypts for Planting in Australia* written by Dean Nicolle, has just been released with description of 84 small Eucalypts and their growing requirements. A number of the photos in this book were taken at Pangarinda Botanic Garden.

STORM DAMAGE @ NETBALL CLUB

The Tailem Bend Netball Clubrooms had its roof torn off during the last major storm that ripped through the town just before Christmas.

As we have been fundraising for several seasons with the intent to upgrade, we are now in the position that it MUST happen.

The canteen will be altered slightly, but the rest of the shelter and shedding will be a rebuild.

My New Year's Eve (2016)

I met a new friend on the weekly grocery bus I travel on and I just happened to mention that I would like to go to the Capri Cinema on Goodwood Road in Adelaide. There was to be a special New Years' Eve show starting at 7 pm with a screening of the movie "My Fair Lady" starring Audrey Hepburn and Rex Harrison and of course, special guests playing that mighty Wurlitzer organ.

Well, within days this new friend of mine had everything organised for her and I to do just that, including being picked up from our homes and sleep over, as well. I can't describe how excited I was and I really looked forward to it. However, come New Years' Eve morning, I wasn't able to go because of a couple of issues with my body. After my friend's initial shock about that, she then needed to choose someone else to accompany her (which she did).

Anyway, those ladies both said they enjoyed the evening so much and my friend even taped the show for me to view the next day (which was awesome). To this new friend of mine, I say a million "thank yous" for making me feel so much better and for the lovely 'gift' and yummy 'Capri Cinema' chocolates, too!

Footnote - Next big exciting venture is in March of this year.

Motorsport News

Media circus circles Tailem Bend with the announcement of an estimated 140 new local jobs being up for grabs during the next twelve months of construction at The Bend Motorsport Park.

Arriving by chopper, Peregrine Corporation's Executive Director, Dr Sam Shahin and South Australian Premier, Jay Weatherill, met with staff and media to publically announce the appointment of South Australian civil construction contractor, Lucas, as the contractor to commence work on the highly specialised 7.77 kilometre racing circuit.

The Bend Motorsport Park is set to become one of the world's longest permanent circuits, second only to Nurburgring in Germany, and it's happening right here in Tailem Bend.

Coorong Communities Benefit

COUNCIL MEETING VENUE

Changes to regular meeting venues for Coorong District Councillors will have flow-on benefits to the region's rural communities.

The traditional pattern of holding monthly council meetings in towns throughout the council district has been changed to better utilise the Coorong Civic Centre in Tailem Bend, while monthly information briefing sessions will see Councillors use various locations within the district.

"Whenever we have held monthly Council meetings away from the Civic Centre it has come at a cost to the community, as we have needed to set up meeting infrastructure at each location, requiring staff time and other costs," CEO Vincent Cammell said.

"Holding these meetings in the community's purpose-built facility in Tailem Bend will see savings, but it also means that the public, who may wish to observe meetings, will always know that Council meets on the third Tuesday of each month at 2pm at the Civic Centre."

The change provides a new opportunity for Councillors to travel throughout the region for their monthly briefing sessions, which they can plan to coincide with community activities and initiatives, giving elected members a more in depth and holistic view of what is happening in their local communities as well as opportunities to meet with residents.

"For example, we will plan one of our briefings to coincide with the commencement of the Coonalpyn Silo Art project by world-renowned artist Guido Van Helten," Mr Cammell said.

Community groups who would like to showcase any projects or programs are invited to contact Council on 1300 785 277, to arrange a visit to their premises.

SCOUT JAMBOREE AT TAILEM

Close to 20,000 people will descend upon Tailem Bend in January 2019, following a recent announcement that it will host the next Australian Scouts Jamboree at The Bend Motorsport Park. Initial figures from organisers estimate the (#AJ2019) event will bring an injection of $15 million into the State's visitor economy, with much of this adding to the Coorong District Council's growing portfolio of major projects and events. The $100 million Bend Motorsport Park will be transformed for 12 days in January 2019, with the Scouts and their support teams, helping to (albeit briefly) make Tailem Bend the fourth largest town in South Australia.

Coorong District Council Mayor Neville Jaensch said this was an incredible win not only for the Coorong district, but also for the Murraylands region and South Australia. "The event itself will give the Coorong tourism economy a great boost, as thousands of people literally set up camp in our backyard," Mayor Jaensch says. "We have an opportunity with AJ2019 to showcase everything the Coorong has to offer to national and international Scouts families.

In announcing the event, Minister for Tourism Leon Bignell said the National Scout Jamboree was a fantastic event, which celebrated teamwork, learning and adventure.

"This event will also showcase the fantastic new facilities at the $100million Bend Motorsport Park at Tailem Bend, which has been developed by the Peregrine Corporation with $7.5 million from the State Government."

Scouts South Australia Chief Commissioner Harry Long says his team was thrilled. "We are incredibly excited to host the 25th National Scout Jamboree not only in South Australia, but at a new world class sports and community facility, The Bend Motorsport Park at Tailem Bend," Mr Long says.

"A Jamboree is a magnificent event that encourages young people to learn, work and grow together as they build a small tented city, prepare and cook their own meals and participate in a of range educational activities."

Book Review

Brad Haddin (Non-Fiction)

It's been a summer littered with books released by former cricketers. Some, notably the autobiographies of Michael Clarke and Mitchell Johnson, have made plenty of headlines but none are as absorbing as Brad Haddin's new release My Family's Keeper, which dropped into The Tonk's pigeon hole this week. As the title suggests it's not so much a cricket book as one about his family, and specifically the heartbreaking tale of his daughter Mia's battle with the childhood cancer neuroblastoma. Mia is thankfully cancer free now but keep a box of tissues handy while reading.

There is some cricket in the book as well, of course, including a shot at now ex-national selector Rod Marsh's handling of the selection decision. Haddin pulled out of the Lord's Test because Mia was in hospital and never found his way back into the side.

Beneath a Burning Sky

A beautiful and heart-wrenching story of love and betrayal, set against a backdrop of British-occupied Egypt.

When twenty-two year old Olivia is coerced into marriage by the cruel Alistair Sheldon she leaves England for Egypt, his home and the land of her own childhood. Reluctant as she is to go with Alistair, it's in her new home that she finds happiness in surprising places: she is reunited with her long-estranged sister, Clara, and falls - impossibly and illicitly - in love with her husband's boarder, Captain Edward Bertram. Beneath a Burning Sky* is a novel of secrets, betrayal and, above all else, love. Set against the heat and intrigue of colonial Alexandria, this beautiful and heart-wrenching story will take your breath away.

Road Safety Tip: It's back to school - Before and after school drop offs are a busy time on the roads with children walking, riding or being driven in the family car to get to school. Young children are particularly vulnerable and so we ALL need to remain alert and take precautions around schools. BE SAFE ON THE ROADS.

If you have a personal notice, community notice, item for sale, birthday greeting or similar, please contact us. We will publish a 25 word or less message/notice for $5.00. An extra $1.00 charge will occur for every 10 words over this limit. The message can be placed with the money in an envelope in the "RED BOX" at the Tailem Bend Post Office before the third Friday of each month. Thank you.
