The Doceff/Long Family

I caught up with Peter and Mavis Long recently, along with their daughter Kaylene, who gave me a lot of information about the connection of Tailem Bend and Jervois with the Doceff/Long family. The history goes back a long way, but is most interesting and just what 'The Changing Face of Tailem Bend' is all about.

Mavis's father's name was George - he worked in the railways in Tailem Bend and was a strong member of the St John Ambulance Brigade. This is the story as told by Peter, who now lives in retirement with Mavis.

Peether Doceff migrated from Bulgaria in 1912 at the age of 26. He came alone and as I believe, he was one of the earliest Bulgarians to migrate to South Australia. His wife Ivy came out in 1913 with their daughter Sonia (Tsony) who was 2 ½ years old at the time.

Ivy Doceff took one look at Port Adelaide in 1913 and wanted to catch the next boat back to Bulgaria.

Peether Doceff's early employment was on building the railway line around Yeelanna-Cummins, then the Port Lincoln to Thevenard line.

From there they went to Mypolonga looking for work, but to no avail, so Peether walked to Tailem Bend to the Jaensch property. There, they started growing vegetables.

-o-0-o-

They then moved to Morphett's at Woods Point and grew vegetables on the swamp land. They remained there until they were flooded out. They then went to Broken Hill where Peether worked on the South mine and by this time, there were quite a number of Bulgarian people working there. He was a powder monkey in the mine, a skill no doubt, learnt on the railway. The long miner's strike in those early days forced them out.

They then came back to Paringa in 1920 to grow vegetables, but they had a lot of trouble with people pinching their vegetables, so they left there and went back to Woods Point, back to the Morphett Property, where they again, grew vegetables.

In 1927, Jervois West was opened up and the Doceff family were allocated the last block towards Wellington. It was 39 ½ acres of swamp land. This block contained the summer residence of Governor Jervois. From here, they again grew vegetables and as the enterprise grew, they had a vegie round that included Wellington, Jervois, Narrung and a retail outlet in Tailem Bend.

Glasshouses were first built in 1935-36, to grow tomatoes, cucumbers etc. The number of glasshouses grew to about 60 in the 1940s - 1950s, with several families working them on a share basis. Some of these family names included Georgeff (Peether's sister married a Georgeff), Santin, Cazzolato, Bellon and Long.

Dairying was introduced by Peether in about 1940. Again, this was done by sharefarmers. These included the family names, Santin, Fabian, Kluske, Long and Vanderzon, until Peether's retirement in 1961.

The property was divided into 2 sections - the dairy and the glasshouses. The dairy was taken over by Peter and Mavis Long (nee Burnett), and the glasshouses by Brian Doceff (one of Peether's sons).

The Changing Face of Taillem Bend #84

Some of Peether Doceff's achievements were:

- 18 years a Councillor for the District Council of Mobilong
- Founding Director of Jervois Coop Dairying Society until about 1961

Wartime anecdotes - Some of the troops that enlisted from Jervois used to send messages back home from the Middle East, how they missed pinching Peether Doceff's watermelons.

Ivy Doceff - (b1890 - d1963) died aged 73
Peether Doceff – (b1886 – d1973) died aged 87
They had three children – Sonia, Roy and Brian
Sonia married Ron Long in 1935 and managed the Doceff Grocery in Willow Street Taillem Bend, They had two boys – Peter, b1936 and Kevin, b1938.
Peter married Mavis Burnett in 1957 and they had five children: Susan b1958, Kaylene b1960, David b1964, Gregory b1966 and Paul b1969.
Kevin married Bessie Rehn and had three children: Graham b1962, Christine b1964 and Ann Marie.

The family also made available to me Naturalization papers filled out by Peether, he was 27 and stated on the Statutory Declaration that he was born on the 25th day of October 1886 and at the time lived at Woods Point. He arrived in Australia on the 12th day of April, 1912 and disembarked at Pt Adelaide. A reference paper for Naturalization was signed by Archie Thomas, Woodard Postmaster Taillem Bend in 1914.

The application was approved and Peether took the oath of allegiance before Special Magistrate Thomas Gepp on the 2nd day of September, 1914.

What a wonderful Australian he turned out to be. The Naturalization process of course, was a lot more complex than shown here, but the hand writing was small and difficult for me to present accurately.

ABOVE L-R: Photo shows myself, Kaylene, Peter and Mavis with the side wall as a background for what was the fruit and veg store, now the Video Shop in Willow St. Thank you to the family for reviving more good memories of Taillem Bend.

I've still got some beauties to come, The Brion family, Anne Howell, Ian Millard and many more who made Taillem Bend famous.

See you then, Peter Connolly

History of Quilt Display at TB Hospital

The history of The Masonic Quilters & Craft Group (MQ&CG) Quilt Display at the Tailem Bend Hospital

Each month the MQ&CG display one of their members' quilts in the hospital's main foyer, a practice that has been much favoured by patients, residents, staff and visitors. The quilts prove not only an attractive display but also a talking point as people admire the colour schemes, workmanship and variety of designs that make up these quilts.

The practice has become so enshrined in the club that it's genesis has become misted by time and so to preserve what we know, this little piece attempts to set a sort of record.

It would appear that the practice of displaying quilts began around 2008 when one of the aged residents, Lois Bryant, herself a quilt maker, donated one of her quilts to the Aged Care facility that is part of the hospital, as a decoration in the dining room. However, there was no suitable space within the actual dining area and so a wall space was identified in the adjoining reception area. A permanent wall mounting and rod for the purpose of hanging the quilts, was erected on a suitable wall.

This first quilt created a lot of interest and conversation amongst the public, residents and staff and was greatly admired.

At that time a member of the MQ&CG, Jenny Ellison and her husband John, were much involved in fund raising for the hospital. Following one particular cabaret, Jenny approached the MC&CG and the hospital, with a suggestion to add their club members' quilts to the display, so as to provide variety as well as a way of promoting the art of quilting. As a result a member from the club will volunteer to display one of their quilts for the month with the exception of December when a purposeful made quilt by the late Jenny Ellison is hung in memory of this wonderful quilter and friend.

From this beginning, the association between the MQ&CG and the Tailem Bend Memorial Hospital has continued and strengthened over the years and in addition to the quilt display, the club also raises funds through their Bi-Annual

Quilt Exhibitions and other fund raising events for the hospital. As the current EO/CEO, Suzanne Nagel states,

"The quilts are amazing, they tell a story and are made with love and to give love to their families and friends - anyone visiting, admires them. Each time they are changed over, a story about the quilt is given to the hospital administration staff, who type it up and it's then placed on the wall next to the quilt. Information about the quilt, who made it and when, the story behind the quilt, how long it took, are all questions staff get asked. This information is felt to not only promote quilting as a hobby, but brings the community to the people looking at the quilt and makes for interesting conversations."

With thanks to Suzanne Nagel EO/CEO and staff for providing many details on the genesis of the program and for the kind words of appreciation of the members' work.

Bowling Club News

Tailem Bend Division One bowler, Colin Baxter, has completed a prestigious double.

First up, he won the club singles championship, then went on to secure the Lower Murray Champion of Champions at the RSL Bowling Club, Murray Bridge.

In the club event, held on Sunday, February 10, Colin defeated a previous champion Duane Edwards in a classic thriller by one shot.

In the Association championships, he won his three games 21 - 8, 21 - 11 and in the final, reigned supreme 25 - 18.

The final scores looked comfortable, but in Colin's words, "It was a hair raising experience."

He joined the club in 2001 and apart from club premier-ships, this is his greatest achievement to date.

Life is always Better at the Lake

The Nitty Gritty

Did you notice it? The local government election in November? All change for the Coorong District Council for the next four years. New faces, faces who've been there before and returning councillors. We now have Mayor Paul Simmons and Deputy Mayor Jeff (Tank) Arthur. Joining Tank in Parks Ward is Lisa Rowntree. Elected unopposed for Lakes Ward, Sharon Bland, Tracy Hill and Vern Leng. Joining Mayor Simmons for Mallee Ward are Brenton Qualmann, Neville Jaensch and Glynis Taylor (yes, me).

One of the first changes to be implemented by the new council was to open the chamber floor up to the public. That's right. At every ordinary council meeting (usually the third Tuesday of the month) there is now 30 minutes allocated to you the public, to ask questions. Just turn up, be courteous, and seek answers to burning issues. There has also been a change to the time of the meeting. Instead of 2pm in the afternoon we've moved it to 6pm, making it much more accessible to those who work or farm, or who have childcare needs.

It has taken some time for those of us who are "new" to the council to try and get to grips with the requirements of the role, the rules, and some of the legislation. Having said that, we're quick learners. We've also taken time to visit one or two local points of interest including the Coonalpyn swimming pool, the Bend Motorsport Park, Wellington East marina, the Tailem Bend treatment plant, the Tailem Bend CWMS settlement ponds, and a very small number of the district roads.

We feel that we have a lot to do and so little time to fit it all in to however, I can assure you, change can only be a good thing.

Cr Glynis Taylor, Mallee Ward, Coorong District Council.

Pangarinda in Bloom Last October

EREMOPHILAS - October 2018

Flowering along the walking trail at Pangarinda Botanic Garden is the beautiful Eremophila (name means desert loving) platycalyx (name means broad calyx). A grey leafed, compact, upright shrub with large deep salmon pink broad calyxes, which remain after the purple spotted cream flowers have fallen.

This 10 year old Eremophila platycalyx is difficult to grow the reason Pangarinda has only one plant and often grafted onto Myoporum species so is not seen for sale.

Planted in many areas at Pangarinda will be seen Eremophila maculata. This is a hardy, easy to grow shrub, will tolerate a great variety of soils. Flowers come in many colours reds, yellow, apricot, deep pink through to very delicate pink. Has a long flowering period from autumn to early summer, attracting many birds.

Broken Ground - McDERMID Val

When a body is discovered in the remote depths of the Highlands, DCI Karen Pirie finds herself in the right place at the right time. Unearthed with someone's long-buried inheritance, the victim seems to belong to the distant past - until new evidence suggests otherwise, and Karen is called in to unravel a case where nothing is as it seems.

It's not long before an overheard conversation draws Karen into the heart of a different case, however - a shocking crime she thought she'd already prevented. As she inches closer to the twisted truths at the centre of these murders, it becomes clear that she's dealing with a version of justice terrifyingly different to her own . . .

Goodwood -THROSBY Holly

A delightful novel of secrets and small town obsessions from Australian musician and songwriter, Holly Throsby. It wasn't just one person who went missing, it was two people. Two very different people. They were there, and then they were gone, as if through a crack in the sky. After that, in a small town like Goodwood, where we had what Nan called 'a high density of acquaintanceship', everything stopped. Or at least it felt that way. The normal feeling of things stopped.

Goodwood is a small town where everyone knows everything about everyone. It's a place where it's impossible to keep a secret. In 1992, when Jean Brown is seventeen, a terrible thing happens. Two terrible things. Rosie White, the coolest girl in town, vanishes overnight. One week later, Goodwood's most popular resident, Bart McDonald, sets off on a fishing trip and never comes home. People die in Goodwood, of course, but never like this. They don't just disappear. As the intensity of speculation about the fates of Rosie and Bart heightens, Jean, who is keeping secrets of her own, and the rest of Goodwood are left reeling. Rich in character and complexity, its humour both droll and tender, Goodwood is a compelling ride into a small community, torn apart by dark rumours and mystery.

Ally's Canine Column

'Hooly dooly' (as my P.A. would say!) it has been hot, hot, hot hasn't it? Thankfully most of us fur-babies get spoilt by the people we own. We get lots of cool water, shade and in some cases air conditioning (ahhhhhhh).

The RSPCA are reminding our owners to take care of us when travelling on hot days, especially if we are on the back of the Ute. This can lead to your furry mates burning their paws and cause heat stress. Even if the tray is lined, the surface still gets hot, just like when you put your bums on a hot car seat!

Remember that if you owners are feeling the heat (or the cold) your fur-babies are also feeling it! I think that even our tough working friends would be feeling the heat.

In my job description I have three hours for sleeping, two hours for eating and the remainder of my day is booked out for looking cute! Some of those working dogs work with some big sheep and even bigger moo cows! I think I'll stay and 'guard' the air-conditioner!

Before you know it we will be complaining about how cold it is. Then my P.A. will be mentioning 'dieting' again, my world is just busy, busy, busy!

Catchya next time, ally xxx

Remember to let Michael Vivian know if there is something you want me to pretend to have knowledge on, look after yourselves and take care of our two legged friends.

How exciting! The Tailem Bend Christmas Parade Committee has had their first meeting and have decided to hold another fundraising Cabaret this year on the 2nd November 2019. Come along and rock along to all the big hits once again tickets are only $20.00, so get a table of friends together.

As usual we will have lots of raffles and fun on the night. Keep your eyes open around the middle of the year for tickets for our major Raffle, we will have some very exciting prizes, these will be available in the Tailem Bend Post Office, where you will be able to book your table for the Cabaret.

Friends of the Tailem Bend Hospital - January 2019

The Friends of the Tailem Bend Hospital welcome 2019 with enthusiasm to continue our fundraising for Tailem Bend District Hospital.

During 2018, we allocated over $34,000 to the Hospital for commodities with the largest of purchases being, a washing machine, curtains and blinds, painting of rooms, vacuum cleaners and a fridge.

Catering is our main source of income, along with donations and 'In Memory' monies contributing to our success.

We welcome Acting Director of Nursing, Kylie Campbell to administration, whilst Mrs Suzanne Nagel takes a well earned 12 months of leave. We hope Kylie enjoys her position with Tailem Bend and Meningie Hospitals.

Thank you to Tailem Bend Foodland management and staff for allocating space for our raffles during 2018, with special thanks to all who patronised the same.

Congratulations to our Christmas Raffle winners, with the lucky recipients being: 1st Prize: David Wells – Blue E63, 2nd Prize: Joan Langton – Blue E55.

Thank you to the Tailem Topics Team of volunteers for the printing of our newsletters and the distribution of this very informative monthly magazine to our community - Well done.

We would appreciate new volunteers to assist with catering etc. With our first meeting for 2019 at the Hospital, February 7, at 1.30pm - ALL WELCOME.

Thank you, Gwenda Zadow - President

HUGE COORONG GALLERY PROGRAM FOR 2019

The Coorong Gallery is launching its biggest annual program to date – including involvement in SALA, South Australia's History Festival, and partnerships with the State Gallery to deliver an exciting and diverse program.

From what began as just one bricks and mortar gallery, the Coorong District Council's arts and culture program now provides exceptional community outcomes in mental health, wellbeing, social connectedness, learning and professional development. The program now encompasses exhibitions at the Tailem Bend Civic Centre as well as smaller scale exhibitions in Meningie and Tintinara.

Coorong District Council Mayor Paul Simmons said there was increasing engagement across the community with various arts projects underway, and the galleries are also now attracting visitors to the district, which has a positive economic outcome.

"Although the arts is a new area for me, I've seen the benefits first hand amongst our local community," Mayor Simmons says.

"It's great to see local artists given the opportunity to share their artworks with the public, allowing them to not only exhibit their creative works, but sell them too."

The Council's Arts and Community Development Officer, Susie Ifould hopes the community will take away inspiration and a positive experience from this year's range of exhibitions.

"We have a great mix of history, Aboriginal art, contemporary art and even our first interpretive community indoor garden."

"Of particular interest to our local community will be the 'Why Tintinara' exhibit. In conjunction with South Australia's History Festival, this will feature a collection of photographs and memorabilia of the town's significant past.

"The Ngarrindjeri and community print-making 'First Impressions' will promote some of our best local Aboriginal artists whilst offering printmaking opportunities to our community.

"With more than 40 local artists exhibiting as part of Coorong's inaugural SALA in 2018, I am excited for our ongoing involvement and the next opportunity to see diverse works from our community artists, giving them the attention they deserve."

An outline of what's ahead is below, the full program can be found at <http://www.coorong.sa.gov.au/cooronggallery>.

- Inside garden: 8 February – 5 April 2019
- Why Tintinara? South Australia's History Festival: 12 April – 7 June 2019
- Ray of Light, Robyn Stacey: 14 June – 26 July 2019
- SALA 2019: 2 August – 27 September 2019
- First Impressions: 4 October – 29 November 2019

Thought for the Month

As the Deer pants for the water brooks, so my Soul pants for Thee, O God, My Soul Thirsts for God, For the Living God, Psalm 42: 1&2

Working hard makes us dehydrated and thirsty.

Some years ago, I was In Papua New Guinea, in the Sepik region. While living and working there, on some occasions, because of the humidity, I became very thirsty. As I travelled the road into Wewak, we would stop at a roadside stall and buy a coconut and drink the coconut water. Immediately, our thirst would be quenched.

Many times in our Lives, because of circumstances, we come across times when we may feel like, 'not sure what tomorrow will bring'. In those times, can I encourage you to look to God? He has the answers.

We can become spiritually thirsty. Seek God, speak to Him, read His word, He wants to satisfy your thirst

Isaiah 51:11, for our hearts shall rejoice in Him, because we have trusted in His Holy Name.

Emeritus Pastor Harry Kromwyk
