Once in a Lifetime Opportunity

With the Coorong region bracing for a 'tsunami' of interstate and overseas motoring enthusiasts, Tailem Bend residents, service groups and council unite for the long term beautification and betterment of their historic railway town.

This once in a life time opportunity has taken some in Tailem Bend by surprise, with accommodation for the ongoing Bend Motorsport Park events already being booked years in advance.

Investigating numerous concepts to fascinate and tempt holidaymakers to stay in their part of the region, the Tailem Bend Progress Association has put forward a number of suggestions to council, including the installation of lighting effects and two enormous, protruding, Murray Cod sculptures on their town's iconic highway Water Tower.

Focusing people for a common cause, a recent community Facebook campaign has resulted in numerous town embellishment projects - like the alliance formed between Tailem Bend volunteers, keen to see their lost Bush Tucker & Wildflower Garden brought back to it's former glory, and Wellington East's Pangarinda Botanic Garden volunteers.

The online campaign has also successfully facilitated a community calibration with Cole's Shell Express, Tailem Bend to beautify the town's main street exposure to the back of their highway property - OPPOSITE PAGE - LEFT.

Facebook volunteers have also offered to help the town's Anglican Church (ABOVE RIGHT) to provide a much needed face-lift to the high traffic

Karonda corner, while the Tailem Bend Historians continue to negotiate the restoration of the charm of the historic Carlslake building (diagonally opposite the Church) and historic murals for Tailem Bend Foodland's main street windows, northern end.

In addition to the many volunteer projects planned, the community has also received confirmation from the Department of Planning, Transport and Infrastructure, South Australia (DPTI) that all the damaged green hose fencing on the Princes Highway median strips will be removed by the end of March 2018. (At time of printing - the pipe has been removed).

And there's even bigger plans afoot, with members of the Tailem Business & Tourism group being privy to and contributing to the Coorong District Council's (November 2017) Project Brief for Tailem Bend's Princes Highway and Landscaping Plan.

The Changing Face of Tailem Bend #74

This month, I touch on the lives of two Ladies who were not born in Tailem Bend but each lived long lifetimes here and grew up as neighbours in Gunally. Once Gunally - always Gunally, rarely was the official name Webb Street, used. Both took different paths and their stories are entirely different, but just as motivating and equally devoted to Tailem Bend and both are retired here.

Mrs Irene Lynch (Nee Connolly, now aged 90, worked at the Lower Murray District Hospital for a total of 31 years as a member of the domestic staff and retired in 1985.

Mrs Lynch, better known as Rene, joined the staff as a chef in 1949, left three years later to resume home duties and re joined in March 1954. Among many changes she experienced, was the move in April 1962 from the old cottage type Hospital building in Second Street near the oval, which had 16 beds, compared to the 32 bed building on the main highway.

In the days of the old hospital, Rene remembers medical staff coming in and asking her to boil instruments for sterilisation, over the wood stove. "Of course we certainly don't see anything like that at all these days," she said. Mrs Lynch served under four chief administrators – Perc Freeman, Ray Oakes, Bob Jambour and Doug Howell.

When Rene started work, the matron was almost solely in charge of running the hospital, while most of the clerical work was done by a part time secretary.

In March 1973, Rene was promoted to hospital house keeper (directly responsible to Mr Howell) administering a staff of 10. She said the job was much like that of a house wife – having to 'make do' with the amount of money available. Curtains were needed in some of the wards, but the money wasn't on hand, so it was a case of waiting until it was.

Introduction of the 38 hour week did bring some extra work for Rene, especially when staff was unavailable and she found the gaps had to be filled by her.

The hospital's social club gave her a farewell dinner in the Railway's Institute, attended by more than 60 staff, friends and relatives (PICTURED BELOW).

Rene said ,that once her husband retired from the Railways, it was time for her to go as well.

Rene pointed out that retirement did not mean a lazy life, there was coaching and umpiring for the local St Joseph's netball team and Church committees. Then there was sewing classes and voluntary sewing for the hospital.

A champion netballer, tennis player and strong swimmer (In the river) Rene still lives a very active life style.

Life is a bit slower nowadays except when" The Crows" excite or frustrate her.

The Changing Face of Tailem Bend #74

Another lady with strong Tailem Bend connection is Mrs Margaret Jones, (Nee Yeo). Margaret retired in 1985 after 13 years at Telecom's Murray Bridge Manual Assistance Centre, revealed she always wanted to drive a truck. That might seem unusual for many women, but at the time, Margaret was the Tailem Bend CFS radio operator and saw it as the next step up in the organisation.

Brigade spokesman John Cockshell, made this ambition known to Telecom district manager Frank Holgate, who mentioned it during his tribute to her at a farewell presentation in 1985.

Margaret was born at Peterborough and moved with her family to Tailem Bend when she was three years old, and attended the state school, later going to St Joseph's. After leaving school, she joined the Post Master General's Department, working in Tailem Bend as a telephonist. She resigned from the PMG in 1951 to join the Army and was stationed at Woodside.

She wanted to be a mechanic, but there were no vacancies at the time and settled for a telephonist's job instead. A position she held for her whole working lifetime. In 1953 she resigned from the Army, married and moved to Clare with her husband to help run a business for 3 years before moving to Adelaide for a year, then returned to Tailem Bend.

"Jonesy" as she was known to her workmates returned to work at the Tailem Bend exchange in 1974 and transferred to Murray Bridge in 1981. Margaret tells the story of while a telephonist, the Ladies would do a night shift month about with the Men. One Lady worked the shift while another was appointed as a companion. Sometimes when a call rang out they would both jump off their beds in surprise to take it. She was involved heavily in the Girl Guides and Brownies for 23 years and rose to the rank of Regional Commissioner.

Next month we look at another migrant's story of introduction to a new life in Australia and eventually Tailem Bend. I also I have a diary of life in Tailem kept by the late HH "Barney" Hattam Senior - very interesting.

See you then - Peter Connolly

LEFT:

Margaret was also a member of Tailem Bend Singers. Among Margaret's recipes for success is, show respect, render service, praise generously and criticise cautiously.

'Jonesy' still lives a busy life in retirement, here in Tailem Bend.

An Anzac Education

It's time for an education - some things that current and former, members of the Australian and New Zealand Defence Force would like to point out prior to ANZAC Day on 25 April:

1. We commemorate ANZAC Day, not celebrate it. It's not a bloody party.
2. Wednesday 25th April 2018 marks the 103rd anniversary of the landing of ANZAC Soldiers, Sailors, Medical personnel and animals on Gallipoli.
3. Sailors rowed Soldiers ashore during the Gallipoli landings, under heavy fire, without outboards motors. The little boats they used are called 'lighters'.
4. It's a bugle, not a trumpet, and the Last Post is sounded, not played. It's not a bloody dance tune.
5. Not every serviceman/woman was a 'soldier'. Some were Sailors, Airmen and Nursing Sisters. Please take the time to ascertain what Service they served in, and use the correct terminology. It means a lot to them/us!!!
6. No, I am not wearing my father's medals, they are mine. I earned them during Active Service while you were enjoying all the comforts that I was dreaming of.
7. They're medals, not badges. They're citations, not pins.
8. Please don't try to draw comparisons between civilians and war veterans, I've never seen a civilian perform acts of heroism whilst under fire to protect their fellow service personnel, Flag and Country.
9. Medals, ribbons and Unit Citations are EARNED, not WON. It's not a bloody chook raffle. They are awarded to the recipient, not given to them.
10. The RED POPPY symbolises peace, death and sleep of the fallen servicemen/woman. While the PURPLE Poppy represents remembrance of the animal victims of war. Learn the difference.
11. 'Lest We Forget' isn't a throwaway line, it actually has meaning: it's an expression of remembrance, par excellence. It has dignified origins, a rich history.
12. Yes, I am allowed to wear my 'Return From Active Service' badge on any day of the year that I choose to wear it.
13. Australian and New Zealand soldiers didn't retreat from Gallipoli, they withdrew.
14. It doesn't matter which side you wear your Poppy on, as long as it's worn with pride.
15. The 'Ode' comes from the poem "For the Fallen", which was written by Laurence Binyon.

The verse, which is commonly known as 'The Ode Of Remembrance', is as follows:

"They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them."

"Lest We Forget"

Here endeth the lesson.

Queen's Baton Relay

Three local Tailem Bend ladies had a once in a lifetime opportunity recently – of being a part of the XXI Commonwealth Games Queen's Baton Relay, Wednesday, February 21, 2018.

It's an experience that will always be treasured by Denise Edwards, Donna Jaensch Brown & Leah Kowald for many years to come.

About her nomination, Denise Edwards said "I don't know exactly what was written in my nomination, however I have been told that it was about my ongoing involvement with our local school and sporting community, and in particular my many years of service to the Tailem Bend Netball Club. I am not one for recognition or personal status, however I cannot explain the pride I felt when I was informed first of the nomination, and second, of being chosen."

"My community involvement as a volunteer and now giving back to the community through my business, is something I do not expect to receive recognition for. I had the opportunity to represent Australia in Powerlifting thanks to our local community, so now I want to help others achieve their hopes and dreams by giving back to my community the best way I can." said Donna Jaensch-Brown.

The co-ordination of the event was meticulously planned and implemented and there wasn't one moment throughout the event, that they were ever treated or regarded as anything less than royalty.

Leah Kowald thanked her nominees Robin & Duane Brodie and said "My Baton bearer involvement was made even more special because I was able to share the experience with two admired friends who have made such a large impact in sport in our local town, Denise & Donna. Although the distance travelled was not far, the memories will last a lifetime and I am forever grateful for the experience – I am one proud Aussie!"

They were given the option to either run or walk with the baton; Denise and Leah's relay leg was in Hahndorf, they both chose to run. Donna walked her leg of the relay, which was in Lobethal.

"You could not remove the smiles from our faces; many emotions flooded our bodies and minds. Going past our families and friends and hearing the kind words about us being relayed through the loud speaker, we could not help but feel triumphant. Proud of the words being spoken, grateful as we heard people applauding, especially for Denise being recognised for her battle against Cancer and genuinely happy to be there, at that time, in that moment. It won't just be the memories we will remember, but the emotions that accompanied them" says Donna.

For those of us with a passion for sport, it is always exciting to see our best athletes competing for our country and pushing themselves to their limits, so to be a part of the journey the baton takes through Australia, was indeed, an honour.

Joke

SUSIE AND THE NUN

Little Susie was not the best student in the Catholic School. Usually she slept through the class.

One day her teacher, a Nun, called on her while she was sleeping.

'Tell me Susie, who created the universe?'

When Susie didn't stir, her friend little Johnny, who sat behind her, took his pencil and jabbed her in the rear.

'God Almighty!' shouted Susie.

The Nun said, 'Very good' and continued teaching her class.

A little later the Nun asked Susie, 'Who is our Lord and Saviour?'

But Susie didn't stir from her slumber. Once again, Johnny came to her rescue and stuck her in the butt.

'Jesus Christ!!!' shouted Susie.

And the Nun once again said, 'Very good,' and Susie fell back asleep.

The Nun asked her a third question...'What did Eve say to Adam after she had her twenty-third child?'

This time Susie jumped up and shouted, 'If you stick that damn thing in me one more time, I'll break it in half!'

The nun fainted.

Frank is Back

I called in to our historic Tailem Bend Hotel to catch up with the new Licensee, Frank Dean, and his wife Alison. They are not really “new” of course, they have merely returned to the same hotel they managed for 10 years until 1995. They are once again pulling cold ones and serving up great meals for many people who they’ve known since way back then, as well as making acquaintance with new residents and visitors to our town, just in time for the exciting Motorsport Park era.

Frank and Alison are already well on track to revitalise the hotel into becoming the popular watering hole it once was. If anyone can achieve the task, Frank’s the man! He’s a talented and versatile man who has faced many challenges during his life. Of course, he’s backed up by wife Alison! As they say, “Behind every good man, there’s a good woman.”

I’ve always liked their dining room. It looks a treat! It still is a character-filled and tastefully decorated room which transports patrons back to a bygone era - very relaxing. As I walked in last week, a couple from Lakes Entrance, Victoria, were walking out and said, “If you’re coming here for a feed, you’re in for a real treat.” They heaped lavish praise on the service and the food, which well-known chef-about-town, Lina, had created. She’s got energy and enthusiasm to burn! Lina has manned hotel kitchens and fried more chickens than Colonel Sanders for more years than she cares to remember! Including when Frank and Alison were here previously. Lina cooks up delightfully delicious dishes which, I’m sure My Kitchen Rules would be proud to serve.

With Frank’s engaging personality and the tastefully rejuvenated interior of the hotel, plus the emergence of The Bend, Motorsport Park, the Tailem Bend Hotel is likely to be in strong demand for meals and accommodation well into Tailem’s exciting, V8-supercharged future.

Shortly, 14 newly carpeted and refurbished bedrooms will be available for occupation and the new Bottle Shop is off to a promising start. Tailem Benders are pleased that the Deans are back in town! Yes, Frank is back! Alison is back! And Lina is back!

Property Matters

You awake in the middle of the night to a loud thud and a room full of dust as you discover your ceiling has dropped in the kitchen.

Or you fall through the veranda roof and break ribs and collar bone as you were attempting to clean the gutters.

These are only two real examples that have happened to people I know.

Both could have been prevented. You see most of us get a regular check up at the local GP. Or service our cars. Though most never even consider a property check or Inspection.

You all know by now” a stitch in time saves nine.” That’s common sense right. It also saves you cents. Imagine the cost of cleaning up that kitchen and fitting a new ceiling. It could have been prevented with the appropriate tools and materials to strengthen. As well as the veranda. Could have replaced those rotted support timbers. Would have been simple enough.

So I urge you to have a Property Inspection. You will be doing yourself a favour. Prevention is always the best cure. The average house inspection is only $350. You should have one every 7 or so years. You get a written report with photos of your house from roof top to foundation and everything else in between. You will either be given peace of mind knowing everything is in order or you will be shown where you have potential serious problems brewing, and be pre warned and now armed with knowledge and prices to rectify these issues before it’s too late.

Tailem Bend Historians - At The Races

TAILEM'S FOUR RACE TRACKS

Tailem Bend Historians first 'Times Gone by Workshop' uncovers four fascinating Tailem Bend Horse Racing Tracks, one dating back to 1895 - Stewards of the group's first workshop, Elizabeth Nicholls, Maxine Kiddie and Angie Tomkinson, all of Tailem Bend, feel that they've exposed more questions than answers after the Workshop.

"It seems Tailem Bend's first track was about 1 mile (1.60934 km) from the main street and its first meeting was The Lake Albert Races on Saturday, January 12, 1895," Elizabeth said. "It looks like there were six races: the River Murray Plate, Handicap Hurdles, Lake Albert Cup, River Murray Handicap, Ladies Bracelets Stakes and the Corinthian Handicap, with a total prize purse of 145 pounds ($265.58)."

Tailem Bend's second track seems to have been managed and established by the Tailem Bend Racing Club in 1906 at Mr LA Pontt's property, a quarter of a mile (0.402336 km) from the main street - it's reported that they had 37 nominations at their first race meeting, with 200 patrons attending.

The third track continued to be administered by the Tailem Bend Racing Club, being established in 1923 on the terms of a lease with an option to purchase provided by Mr R Gardiner on his property 2.5 miles (4.02336 km) from the main street.

In 1930 the Racing Club relocated Tailem Bend Racing to the town's fourth and final track, on land donated by

Mr BB Jaensch to utilise the benefits of it's own rail siding for trackside loading and unloading – racing continued to flourish.

The Track's rail siding remained well after racing ended, being demolished in the late 1970's - the foundation of our town's last Tote (Horserace Totalisator Board - for collecting and totalling bets from punters) is all that remains trackside.

The Tailem Bend Historians need local Horse Racing images - Do you have any to share... ?

If you can shed more light on our fascinating Horse Racing past, please contact Angie Tomkinson of the Tailem Bend Historians at the Community Library on 8572 3266 - says Angie, "We would like to develop a Horse Racing Track map showing each of our historic race venues."

Pangarinda Gardens

It was a 37C degree day when these photos of Calytrix leschenaultii were taken at Pangarinda Botanic Garden. This small shrub to 1m high, grows naturally in the woodland and heath country across the south west of Western Australia, as far north as Kalbarri and Payne's Find. The gardens were lucky enough to have been given some very hard to obtain plants grown by the late Keith Pitman, among them the four bushes of Calytrix Leschenaultii which have been in full bloom during some very hot days. There are 75 species of Calytrix with all endemic to Australia. Calytrix tetragona is our local Calytrix and will be seen flowering in the gardens in Spring.

September 23, 2018, Pangarinda Botanic Garden will be celebrating 25 years – so put it in your diary and come and visit this beautiful garden and help us celebrate, starting at 10am all day to 5pm.

Happy Pet - Happy Owner

Remember to have realistic expectations and never buy an animal on a whim. Visit website www.dogsncats.asn.au and take the 'selectopet' test to find out which one of us would best suit your lifestyle.

Reward behaviours you want to increase, and ignore those you want to decrease (I must be 'really' good according to my rewards tin..and tummy width!). Please don't punish us too severely as one bad behaviour is often replaced with another one, often worse. We don't understand if we are told off for something we did hours ago when you first left for work.

Some behaviours are self rewarding, like greeting you when you get home and we immediately get a pat and a smile. Work together to make a 'team' effort to be socially acceptable, such as behaving politely with visitors arrival (don't jump up on them because you might scare them, not you PA!) but that it's ok to jump for a ball at the park, rewards for being quiet/calm welcome via treats or pats.

Remember parks are good for us all to socialise and exercise...off to the oval for us PA, we need the exercise.

- ac.care's Communities for Children Murraylands programme funded by the Australian Government Department of Social Services
- Department for Communities and Social Inclusion (DCSI)
- Department of Planning Transport and Infrastructure (DPTI)
- The Coorong District Council (CDC)

About the Commonwealth Home Support Programme (CHSP)

The aim of the CHSP is to help older people live as independently as possible with a focus on working with you, rather than doing for you. It is about working on your strengths, capacity and goals to help you remain living independently and safely at home.

Eligibility

You may be eligible under the Commonwealth Home Support Programme if you are:

- having trouble doing everyday activities without help, and
- need support to live independently in the community and are:
- 65 years or older (50 years or older and identify as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person) or
- 50 years or older (45 years or older for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people) and on a low income, homeless or at risk of being homeless.

If you have been injured or hospitalised you may be eligible for extra services through the program for a short time to help you get back on your feet after you return home.

Assessment

To find out if you need an assessment and if you are eligible for help at home services, you should call My Aged Care on 1800 200 422. The My Aged Care staff will ask you questions about your current needs and circumstances so they can refer you to appropriate aged care services. You will need to have a home support assessment with a Regional Assessment Service (RAS) before you can be approved for care.

Services

Depending on your needs, you may be eligible to receive:

Community and home support

- domestic assistance - household jobs like cleaning and laundry
- personal care - help with bathing, showering or getting dressed
- home maintenance - minor general repairs and care of your house or garden, for example, changing light bulbs or replacing tap washers

- home modifications - such as alarms, ramps and support rails in your home
- aids and equipment - such as a bath seat, raised toilet seat or mobility aids
- nursing care - a qualified nurse to assist with managing medications social support - social activities in a community-based group setting or accompanied activities transport - help getting out and about for shopping or appointments.

Meals and food services

- help with shopping for food
- help with making meals and storing food in your home
- help with learning to cook
- delivering meals to your home providing meals at a community centre.

Allied health support services

- physiotherapy (exercises, mobility, strength and balance)
- podiatry (foot care)
- speech pathology
- occupational therapy (help to recover or maintain your physical ability)
- advice from a dietician (healthy eating)

other allied health and therapy services.

Respite care

- care for you while your carer takes a break.

If your carer is in need of additional support, contact the Carer Gateway on 1800 422 737.

Costs

The Australian Government subsidises a range of aged care services to keep client fees reasonable and affordable.

If you are eligible, you are expected to contribute to the cost of your care if you can afford to.

You do not need an income assessment to access CHSP services and your age pension will not be affected by your contributions to the cost of your services.

You will need to discuss and agree any fees with your service provider before you receive services.

Service providers should have a fee policy with arrangements for those who are unable to pay their fees due to hardship.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR – 10/03/18

I would like to publicly commend Malcolm Piggott and his team for the unique animal shed in the old railway station yard. I finally got around to seeing it a few weeks ago and was very impressed with the whole project. A real credit to those who had a part in it. Thank you for bringing your ideas to fruition and sharing with us all. I have been encouraging my family and friends to see it too.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

The World Day of Prayer was hosted by Trinity Lutheran Church, Seymour Street at 2pm on Friday, March 2, 2018.

Members of the Talem Bend community met to follow the service arranged by the people of Suriname. Suriname is on the Northeast coast of South America, bordered by the Atlantic Ocean, French Guyana, Guyana and Brazil.

Their service highlighted the different ethnicities of the country and called for people to look after the environment. The theme being, 'All God's Creation is Very Good.'

A display was erected in the church symbolic of God's Creation. Members of Talem Bend church congregations read passages to show the diversity of costume, places of habitation and work of the people of Suriname. They are very mindful of the fragile nature of the flora and fauna in their land, especially the sea turtle.

A collection of $191.55 was sent to the World Day of Prayer Committee in Australia.

Thank you to all who attended and took part in the service.

Motoring News - AMAZING APRIL

With Easter, the Karoonda Fair, The Bend Members Cruise, ANZAC Day, home Football & Netball games, the Taillem Bend Race Day Celebration Fair, Youth Week, Giant Pumpkin Competition, Shannon Nationals, Superbike Riders Meet & Greet, Australian Superbike and Asia Road Racing Championships, the GT Sprint and the SA Time Attack at the Motorsport Park, along with all the regular community meetings and activities, AMAZING APRIL in Taillem Bend is definitely a sign of what's to come!

With so much happening and possible limited personal funds, members of the Taillem Bend Auto Club, believe they've come up with a solution to finding an affordable way to soak up all the excitement of The Bend at very little cost - become a volunteer Motorsport Marshal.

Most Marshalling training is done on the job, you get close to the action (on and off the track) and you are hydrated and fed extremely well during and after racing - most of all, you become a respected member of the racing fraternity.

No Marshal's, No Racing, FACT - Motorsport and all its associated benefits rely heavily on Volunteer Marshals to get races up and running safely.

The explosion of additional races in South Australia (Up from 22 in 2017 to 42 in 2018 with more coming) has created a huge demand for Volunteer Marshals - with this in mind President, Lynton Piggott and Photographer, Glenn Power of the Taillem Bend Auto Club invited the South Australian Motorsport Racing Officials Association (SAMROA (Cars)) and South Australian Flag Marshalling Association (SAFMA (Motorcycling)) to their club meeting, Tuesday, March 21.

"As soon as I heard that The Bend Motorsport Park was coming to town I began volunteering as a Flag Marshal for both car and motorcycling events as it was obvious to me that I would not be able to afford tickets to everything I wanted to see at The Bend," Glenn said. "It's been interesting, a lot of fun, I've made some good friends, along with some fantastic business contacts and it's allowed me to get up close and personal for some exceptional photographs - of course that's when I'm not waving my flag."

The Taillem Bend Auto Club secured a number of additional Volunteer Flag Marshals on their meeting night, but many more are needed - if you would like to help secure the future of Motorsport in our state, register an interest with The Bend Motorsport Park via their website (thebend.com.au) or directly contact either SAMROA (Cars) Darren Mattiske on 0412 823 171 or SAFMA (Motorcycling) Tony Fountain on 0488 682 387.

*Notice - if you can't get out to the track for the Australian Superbike and Asia Road Racing Championships why not drop into SA Motorcycles, Princes Highway, Taillem Bend for their FREE BBQ and Superbike Rider Meet and Greet night from 6 pm, Friday April 20 - bring the family, as riders will be posing for photographs and signing posters for everyone.

Thought for the Month

"Where the 'Soul of Australia' came to life, as the blood of Australians was shed on the sod, For Australia, for Britain, Humanity, God." – J. H. M. published The Brisbane Courier, April 25, 1916.

Australians have held the values of mate ship, courage and sacrifice as part of the core of our identity. Gallipoli and in particular Lone Pine and the Nek were like a crucible where Australia went from a newly federated colony to being a nation. These first Anzacs embodied those values and added to them an unflinching resolve to stand in the face of whatever came their way.

The Australian armed forces have maintained that tradition through every place they have been asked to serve. They train in a manner that values each soldier's life and they operate with the expectation that everyone will return. In every theatre of war from that first Anzac Day to today they have performed with distinction. It is easy for me to say that I am proud of our nation and its armed forces and am grateful for their service. I know I am not alone in being able to place such value on their sacrifice for us?

In John 15:13 Jesus is recorded to say that "Greater love has no man than this than a man lay down his life for his friends." The Apostle Paul went on to write that in Romans 5:7-8 "Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die. But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us."

"They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old; Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning we will remember them."

FIONA LOWE - Birthright

Does it show love? Margaret, the matriarch of the wealthy Jamieson family, has always been as tight-fisted with the family money as she is with her affection. Her eldest daughter, Sarah, is successful in her own right as a wife, mother and part owner of a gourmet food empire. But it's not enough to impress her mother. Always in the shadow cast by the golden glow of her younger brother, Sarah feels compelled to meet Margaret's every demand to earn her love.

Does it give security? After a poverty-stricken childhood, Anita has claimed the social status she's worked so hard to achieve by marrying Cameron Jamieson. Although they have a comfortable life, she's never able to fully relax, fearing everything could change in a heartbeat.

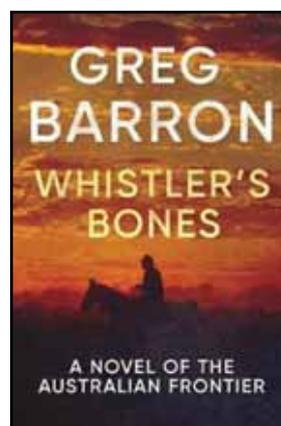

Or does it mean freedom? Ellie, the youngest, has lived a nomadic and — according to her siblings — a selfish life, leaving them to care for their ageing mother. For her, freedom means staying far away from the strings attached to her inheritance, but she needs to consider her young son's future as well.

As their mother's health deteriorates, will long-held secrets and childhood rivalries smash this family into pieces?

An addictive and page-turning story of the relationships between siblings and of deceit, betrayal and revenge.

GREG BARRON - The Whistlers Bones

At the age of fifteen Charlie left his home in Bendigo and signed on as a drover with Nat Buchanan. Two years later he was a key man on one of Australia's greatest cattle drives - the Durack family's two-year journey from Cooper's Creek, Queensland - to the Kimberley.

Stumbling on Charlie's largely unknown story, and filling in the gaps with fiction, the author has created a novel unique in Australian literature. An unprecedented adventure, and a passionate love story - The Heart of My Country is both a celebration of the good things in the settlement of Northern Australia - and a damning indictment of the bad.
